

Mrs. Green said: "I paint.
I would rather paint than be angry."

A very angry six year old once said to me: "I'm going to bring a gun and shoot you, then a knife and cut you, then sit and watch you bleed. I said "Couldn't we just get some crayons and mark on the pews?" He said: "You got crayons." Giving a child choices can be a real help toward self control.